You saw this dog as a puppy.
You've known the family even longer.
Now there's a lump. A scary lump.
"What Do We Do?" she asks...

At times like these you can count on the Oncology Center at VMSG for support.

With the synergistic multi-specialty support of internal medicine, surgery, radiology, emergency and critical care, the Oncology Center is available to handle all of your patient and client needs. Our oncologist, Dr. Rodney Ayl, is double boarded in medical and radiation oncology, allowing for the best diagnostic and treatment options for both patient and owner. We are very excited to be expanding the breadth of our oncology services with the new Oncology Center at VMSG.
